No. 2019—EIGHTH YEAR | BUENOS AYRES, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1868. | CIRCULATION 3000

MAUA BANK,
101-103 CALLE CANGALLO

The offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of checques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta Fé, Salto Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 10 a.m. till 3 p.m.

Guillermo Sohnidber.

The Company Insures against Fire on very small Premiums. Every class of Buildings and Goods, whether private or industrial.

Goods in Customs Deposit may be likewise Insured.

Insurers in this Company contract no othe obligation than the payment of the stipulater Premium on the Policies, the Company being only responsible for such injuries as they may suffer from Fire.

Among the general conditions of the Policy, there is one of particular advantage to Mortgage Creditors.

The Company offers the following Rewards:—
$f.40 To the first Hose ready to lend assistance.
$f.20 To the second do. do.
$f.20 To the first pipe of water.
$f.4 To each of the five succeeding pipes

Which run to the Fire of any Edifice or Property Insured in THE ESTRELLA, on making known his choice of the Reward, or a Certificate issued by the Police authorities to such as shall have assisted at the mishap.

The Company will also give a Reward of $f.4 to whoever shall present themselves at their Office, to give Notice of any Fire within the Municipal POLICIES Issued, and all further particulars to behad, at the Head Office, No. 118, PIEDAD; or at any of the Country Agents.

SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL:
Hard Dollars, 2,730,865·59.
No. of Policies,.. 2,644 | Securities, $f.838,920·41

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA receives Deposits of from Five Patacones per Annum up to any amount in Weekly, Monthly, or Yearly Instalments.

FACTS ADMITTED AT ALL TIMES.

In the early ages of the world, whilst cosmogony was almost a present event, the doctrine, "one man is as good as another, and better too," was on all sides allowed; so, later on, in what is especially termed the classic age, we find one of our immortal bards singing "everybody is bound to go the entire animal or none." Also, in modern times, the "infant giant in swaddling clothes," "Our American Cousin," announced in the simple but beautiful and impressive form of a nursery rhyme, that everybody was 'bound to go for the Union, right or wrong.' All these propositions were at once received and placed in the list of 'facts.' At the present moment we find the people of Buenos Ayres practically allowing another fact, that at 40½ Calle San Martin gentlemen's under-clothing and wearing apparel generally are sold at reasonable rates, and of good quality—Q.E.D.

Citizens, of what we hope President Sarmiento will make a tight little Republic. We live in go-a-head times, stage coaches, long prices, and long credits, not adapted to our ideas and wants. Railway speed, telegraphs, small profits and quick returns, are the order of our day, so go-a-head young John Bull go a-head tight little Republics, go-a-head 'all creation.'

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER.

This Preparation has proved itself to be the best ever presented to the Public—a fact to which thousands who have used it are ready to testify. A few applications will change brush, dry, and wiry hair into the most beautiful silken tresses; if the Hair is falling off, or becoming gray, the use of the Renewer will surely arrest its decay, and cause it to assume in a short time all its former beauty.

As a Hair Dressing, this Renewer is unequalled by any other hair preparation in the world; and as it contains no poisonous drugs whatever, the Proprietors offer the Sicilian Hair Renewer to the Public with every confidence.

THE CORRENTINO WAR.

RETURN OF DR VELEZ SARSFIELD.

Yesterday Dr Velez Sarsfield, Prime Minister of the Nation, returned from Entre Rios, having most successfully terminated the mission confided to him by President Sarmiento.

There is something so highly honorable to the new Government in the short, speedy, and complete pacification of Corrientes effected by Dr. Velez Sarsfield, that his conduct merits the most especial praise.

Great as are the claims of this distinguished lawyer both as a commentator and a statesman, they fall short of the debt the country owes him for rescuing the State from further expense on account of this unmeaning war.

We welcome Dr Sarsfield back from his mission, which he has concluded with such credit to himself and advantage to the nation.

The pacification of Corrientes is a very splendid beginning for the new Government, and augurs for the country a bright future.

THE FRAUDULENT COUPONS.

It is much to be regretted that the talented editor of the "Nacional" cannot find time to read his own newspaper. To our surprise and astonishment the "Nacional" of Friday evening takes us to task, for asserting a fact which we derived from no other source than the very columns of the "Nacional" itself. The "Nacional" of the 27th ult. stated in an article on the fraudulent coupons, "that, so far back as two years ago, a clerk informed the Finance Minister, that the funds voted by Congress for this purpose, were out; that a cabinet council was held, and it was decided to continue paying the coupons out of another branch of the public revenue." Now, the foreign coupons debt is an ascertained liability; for its payment a certain sum, is annually voted. There can be no mistake either as to the amount, or the period of payment—and hence, when the funds set apart for its payment are exhausted, there is 'prima facie' evidence of a fraud or mistake some place, if coupons are still presented for payment.

What would be thought of a bank or railway manager, who, after paying away the declared dividend on the full amount of the shares issued, found shares still coming in, and went on paying dividend on such shares out of the reserve or other funds of the bank or railway, as the case may be? The position of the Government before the public, is identical, and, if the statement of the "Nacional," as to the notification of the Minister by the clerk, be correct, then the 'onus probandi' lies with the Government to establish its innocence.

In justice, however, to the members of the late Government, we feel bound to say, that the history of this business, as far as we can gather, is as follows:—

When Sr. Dominguez took his post at the public office, he found that there were five series of foreign debt.

Serie A—French.
Serie B—English.
Serie C—Sardinian.
Serie D—Lusitanian.
Serie E—American.

The total amount of these coupons, we understand, figured at $2,900,000, requiring an appropriation of $80,000 per annum for payment. Soon it was discovered, that this last mentioned sum was by no means sufficient to meet the coupons falling due. Mr. Dominguez notified the Finance Minister, Sr. Gonzales, of the difficulty, who at once consulted the Vice President, Don Marcos Paz. The Vice President, regarding the foreign coupons as a sort of preferential debt, and one demanding most punctual payment, ordered the Minister to notify Mr. Dominguez accordingly, and to pay the coupons on presentation. $f.100,000 was roughly estimated for the succeeding year, and found insufficient. $f.120,000 was the next estimate for the following year, and also found insufficient; and this year $f.130,000 was about to be appropriated, when, thanks to the researches of Mr. Arenales, the fraud was at last detected.

Coupon 9 is the coupon now matured and being paid.

These are the facts of the case, as far as we can gather. The Nacional erred, therefore, in stating that a Cabinet Council had been held: but our colleague was correct in stating that the Government had been notified that the funds appropriated for the debt were insufficient.

To make this matter clear and intelligible to the public and our colleagues, we state:

First. That the over-issued Coupons, in the hands of the parties who perpetrated the fraud, are null and void.

Second. That the over-issued Coupons, in the hands of innocent third parties, who can show by their books that they bought them in the regular routine of business, and paid a valuable consideration therefore, must be paid by the Government, since the signatures to the Coupons are genuine. Sagory v. Haarlem, BR.

Third. That the negligence of the Government in paying false Coupons, even without notice of the fraud, amounts to an acquiescence, and all losses caused thereby must be borne by the party whose negligence helped in the concealment of the fraud. Vijers v. Pike, 8, Clarke and Fur, R. 562.

Our colleague the Nacional commits a very grave error in supposing that none save the swindlers of the Government House and their friends have any interest in this question, or that we, in ventilating the matter, plead their cause. Urged solely for the honor and credit of the nation, we have taken the trouble to expound the law and the decisions bearing on the case. A distinguished foreigner in this city, a man who has sat on the Bench as Judge for many years in his own country, observes—the Government here may try to get rid of the liability; but it could not be done in England or the States, or in any country where strict principal and sound law prevail.

We interest ourself in the matter, since, if the genuinely signed Coupons in the hands of bona fide purchasers be repudiated by the Government, there is an end to all dealings in every species of public security. National Bonds, which to-day sell on the Bolsa may, for aught we know, have, at no very distant date, the same clouds on their title. Men look to the signatures of a public document, and being satisfied of their genuineness, take the security. This is the legitimate custom established, which cannot be departed from, or else the Government must be prepared to take the consequences, and find its Bonds, its treasury notes, its Coupons, and bills rejected at every bank and merchant's office. Government paper will then cease to be negotiable in this or any other market.

Norberto Riestra, Pondal Garcia, P. Huergo, and others,—these are the signatures which have given value to these Coupons, they were known to be genuine, and who dare question them.

Yet we are to be told that although the signatures are genuine, the document is worthless. We trust, for the honor of the country, no tribunal here will be found willing to establish such a doctrine. It would prove the ruin of all public credit, and abolish all confidence.

A TRIP ON THE WESTERN RAILWAY.

There is no Railway in this province that runs through a more fertile district than the Government line from Plaza Parque to Chivilcoy. When, after several sharp curves, we get clear of the town with its narrow streets and low houses, a rare sight meets our view in the number of pretty quintas situated on both sides of the line. These country seats, built with great taste and expense by the careworn broker or prosperous city merchant, have wonderfully multiplied within the last few years, and in such rapid succession do they now appear that one might almost suppose he were wandering through a vast garden. Mr. Boyd's rural mansion, near Rose Hill, can no longer boast of the refreshing little 'half-way house,' being now followed into Flores by such fashionable residences as Messrs. Terrero's smiling lodge, the Brothers Varela's neat quinta, Don Norberto Riestra's financial hall, last year loaned out to one of our most distinguished foreign residents, now closed, probably waiting the return of its distinguished proprietor. In front is Rose Cottage, the temporary abode of some swell British clerks, whilst on the other side, and conveniently near the Flores station, we have Darbyshire Hall and Nield Mount; a little further on the same road, which in winter must be intransitable, except on stilts, is 'The Retreat:' in the midst of a forest of fruit-trees stands the hospitable home of an old Scotch capitalist, who, after some years' sojourn in the old country, returned to the Plate and settled down in this delightful spot, taking for his motto those lovely lines of Goldsmith,

"O bless'd retirement, friend of life's decline,
Retreat from cares that never must be mine:
How happy he who crowns 'mid sports like these,
A youth of labor, with an age of ease."

Passing Flores the quintas gradually lessen, their places being usurped by the more useful, though less ornamental 'chacras.' This change is attributable to the city folks being desirable to keep as close to the scenes of their daily occupations as is consistent with fresh air and country associations. The unwillingness of the directors to run late trains or issue cheap tickets to these further stations has, perhaps, a good deal to do with it, too. However, by thus disobliging one party, they cater to the wants of the other by supplying them with the best conveyance for their produce to market: and in this the Directors consult their own pecuniary interest—for the difference between first and second-class fare is more than made up by the freight on fruits and vegetables here abounding. So rich is the soil that, with comparatively light labor, two crops can be produced a year.

It is surprising what strides agriculture has made here even within the last twelve months. For leagues round there is not a sheep to be seen, the whole country being laid down for tillage. Where last year your horse frisked across the green sward, is now under maize or corn. These crops promise remarkably well, though in one or two instances I noticed they had suffered from the rain. It is to be hoped the weather will continue fine, as the farmers are anxious about the result of the experiment; and, there can be no doubt, if the harvest this year proves good, every sheep-farmer will send his sheep to the 'graseria' and take to agriculture. Even as it is, the rider has to keep his weather eye open, or he may get into a row with the husbandman, and it is better to keep to the road than attempt to cut round the 'chacras.' To see the miserable way Italians have of working up the surface, one would be surprised how they could ever raise a crop. Mr. Coffin's model farm is the only place where the land is properly ploughed, which speaks well for the instruments there in use.

At the Paso Morales a new bridge is being constructed by a French engineer on some disputed land, to which the contractor lays claim. No subsidy is given by the Government, but merely permission to collect toll for twenty years. In this way the outlay will be soon more than paid, and the speculation probably prove a good one, besides being a great convenience to the public, who, from the neglected state of the Puento de Marques, have had much difficulty in crossing the Las Conchas. Now, however, a new company have undertaken to repair it. The Frenchman offers much opposition, but, it is hoped, the improvement so long required will be made. Here it is Mr. Longevin has his mill, now offering for sale. Ever since one of the partners was drowned in the stream, just two years ago, the works have been stopped. The place is well situated, in the very heart of a cereal producing district, with no opposition, nearer than Lujan, where two mills are constantly at work, and ought to be a capital investment for any man understanding the business.

Moreno is a small town, about eight leagues from the city by railway. Unlike Moron or Merlo, it is of modern construction, having been called into existence in the year 1860, when the train reached there. So long as it remained the terminus of a great railway, which, at no distant day, is destined to spread its civilising power over the vast country stretching out before it on all sides, this little place boasted of some importance, of this it was quickly robbed by the steady advance of the iron horse towards Lujan, Mercedes, and Chivilcoy. The village now consists of thirty houses, built round a very large square (six times as large as Victoria), through the centre runs the railway, and on one side stands the church, never properly finished, for want of funds, flanked by the curate's house and female Municipal school. Close by is the builder's castle, so called from the fantastic architectural structure, in which the worthy individual who built the town indulged when constructing his own habitation. Its unfinished state enhances the interest its unique shape is calculated to impress on the stranger, and I learned from an old resident that, unlike the church, it was not for want of funds, but another debt, which all the builder's savings could not liquidate. The heirs have not thought fit to continue the work, and there it stands.

On the north-west side of the Plaza is the Juzgado, by far the best house in town, and lately bought very cheap by Government; a large and well kept garden is attached, from which the passer-by, if he believe, with the historian, that love for flowers bespeaks a highly cultivated mind, may form a fair estimate of the character of the man who, during the last three years, has ruled the destinies of this young place. Don P. Martinez Melo is an old sheepfarmer, who spent much of his leisure time in the study of the laws, institutions, and interests of his country; and, since his elevation to power, has displayed rare qualifications for the post. He is very friendly to foreigners, who ardently hope to see him re-elected next year.

Strange to say, there is no post-office, but the affable station master takes care of all letters or papers confided to his charge, at a slight extra tariff—two dollars, instead of one quarter, for letters to the city, and for ditto to any part of the camp, though much nearer, four dollars is collected in advance; this outrageous imposition calls for immediate reform. Throughout the whole camp the same may be said, if not worse, for every town has not the blessing of a civil, obliging station master. It is the black spot in Mr. Posada's management. Within the radius of the city, I freely admit it could not be much better, but in the entire vast circuit of the camp, it could not be worse. The whole system must be remodeled; no half measures will do. If properly constituted, our postal system would become a blessing, as in most civilized countries it is regarded; and any expense thereby involved, would be a hundredfold repaid. As it is at present, no man will send a letter per post if he can help it, and in most cases it is far more satisfactory to go oneself, or send a messenger, than trust your letter to an ignorant Basque mayoral, even though he have 'correo' inscribed in gold letters on his cap.

Shearing has begun in earnest on mostly all the Irish estancias, though the natives hold back a little, to see how the market goes. Everyone looks to the paper for price, and it is confidently expected the rate will rule as high as last year. Should prices go down, and the harvest turn out well, then several old sheepfarmers are resolved to melt down the sheep, and turn to agriculture. Here and there may be met a flock going to the graseria. They are of course picked, and so fat as to make many an ardent shepherd's tooth water, but they fetch from $33 to $40, and that's the rule now with biscuits, from $35 to $45 the arroba. Shears $250 to $300 the dozen, and those, so brittle too, that not unfrequently they bring the shearing to as complete a stand still as a wet day. "No matter," says the dealer, "I did not make them all good for the trade—lay in a heavy stock." From Merlo to Lobos, it is proposed to run a new branch, which would be of no less convenience to the residents than the intended junction of Salto with Lujan. In the latter town are located two Irish clergymen, who, each Sunday, take their rounds of adjoining towns, attending the spiritual necessities of the English speaking residents of each district, in turn. A stone's throw from Moreno station is a snug house standing on two and a half leagues of camp intersected by the railway. Here Mr. Barry (Barry & Walker) formerly resided, until the year 1860, when he sold off his sheep at a splendid price, compared with present prices. Since then the place has fallen much out of repair, being only occupied by an old widow. One time she took fright at the loneliness of the place, and went to town to look for a partner. Some robbers, taking advantage of her absence, broke open the door, and stole all her valuables. No clue could ever be found to the cowardly perpetrators, but, that there must have been a goodly number of them, is proved, by the fact, that they walked off with her silver spoons, which, as she said, would take your two hands to stir your tea with.

An enterprising German, failing at great expense to propagate the growth of silk worms, has started a new concern for the manufacture of butter by steam. For this purpose, he has erected two large galpones: one for machinery, and the other with stalls to feed the animals as at home. It is said, he can make an arroba an hour, and as he has the train alongside, it can be sent into market before cool, thus guaranteeing its freshness. Now, one might suppose that, with the consumption of this article, every day increasing in Buenos Ayres, he should be able, at a moderate price, to do a great business. The natives ridicule the idea of stall feeding the beasts on the same pasture to be had on the open camp, and undertake to milk the biggest cow, as well at a common stake as under the shadow of this cow palace. Indeed, in this, the enterprising German was rather unlucky, the gable end of the shed having been blown in, by a recent storm, and killed the poor herd. Your friend Mr. Robt. Kelly is shearing, determined to be early in the field, and began to shear last week. He is now more than half done, and hopes to have the wool in the 'Once' by next week. It is a strange thing if he does not get a good price, seeing that there never was cleaner wool, bellies apart, except what may have passsed through Mr. Ryan's lavadero.

The camps are in splendid condition; weather fine; thistle very high; and no more water wanted for a twelve-month.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Minister of the Interior H. E. Dr. Velez Sarsfield, arrived yesterday in town from Entre Rios, having satisfactorily accomplished the mission he had been entrusted with, the pacification of Corrientes. We salute this distinguished statesman on his return and congratulate him on his great success.

The City of Rio de Janeyro, leaves this afternoon with mails and passengers for Europe. It is confidently expected she will beat the Royal Mail packet.

We received early yesterday a telegram announcing the arrival of the Newton in Montevideo, with dates from England to the 30th inst. The latest telegrams from Madrid, are dated 29th Sept. and a summary of the news will be found in another column. The final triumph of the revolution all over Spain may be looked upon as a certainty, and we cannot help congratulating our Spanish friends at the prospect of seeing liberal institutions firmly established in that classic land they claim as their mother country.

Mr. Worthington, the United States Minister, has returned from Montevideo. We understand that the Honorable gentleman has engaged the house at present occupied by General Paunero, near the Cinco Esquinas, and nearly in front of that inhabited by the late General Asboth.

The "Artiste" a periodical review edited by Mr. Arsene Houssaye, in Paris is publishing in parts a novel written by Mrs. Garcia, the wife of the new Minister in the United States, called "Paolo or Life in the Pampas," which is said to be remarkable not only for its great intrinsic merits as for the profound knowledge of the French language displayed by the authoress. The 'Tribuna' will shortly begin in its Folletin a reproduction of Mrs. Garcia's novel translated into Spanish by the able pen of Miguel Cané.

The Minister of War paid an official visit to the Capitania del Puerto, on Tuesday and minutely inspected the building and all the offices. We hear that by his direction the Captain of the Port is preparing a report of the improvements that are imperiously called for in the building and an estimate of their cost.

Among the passengers that came up in the America on Thursday, was Mr. Tavolara the talented editor of the Tribuna of Montevideo. We salute our distinguished colleague, and trust his visit may be agreeable to him.

The printing utensils and materials of our defunct colleague the Patria were purchased by Sr. Merlo who intends founding a new periodical in Chivilcoy.

The Government has ordered an engineer of the Western Railway to proceed to San Isidro and report upon the inundations that have taken place lately in that district.

One of our colleagues asserts in an authoritative manner that Sr. Sarmiento first offered the Command-In-Chief of the Argentine army to Gen Mitre who refused to occupy it on the plea that he was desirous of reposing for a while and enjoying the sweets of private life.

More invasions of Indians. In Santa Fé, the Bedouins of the Pampa carried their depredations to within eight leagues of the Capital of that province, as far as a point called San Pedro. They did not respect the property of the Governer himself, and are said to have carried off about one thousand head of cattle belonging to Sr. Cabal. To fill up the cup of misfortunes the colonies in that province had been visited by swarms of locusts which were committing incalculable damages.

The "Nacional" of Thursday contains a correspondence exchanged between the General post office and the Department of the Interior, which betrays a wholesome anxiety to put an end to abuses in the Administration of the Post Office. The Post-master of Rosario, D. Pedro Rodriguez del Fresno, having manifestly shown his unfitness for the post he occupied, our worthy post-master General Sor Posadas, addressed a note on the 24th to the Minister of Interior, requesting to have him removed and backing his request by irresistable documentary evidence. The Government has by decree of the 26th dismissed Sor. Fresno, from the post he occupied, and appointed in his stead, on Sor. Posadas recomendation D. Juan Hesling.

We are obliged, by press of matter to hold over until our next edition Mr. Coghlan's Waterworks Report. We see, in the Nacional of yesterday an article denouncing the whole system of the works. It is pretty clear that the writer has never seen an establishment of the kind before, as he evidently mistakes the settling basins for reservoirs for the filtered water. Impartial professional parties and competent judges who have examined the works at the foot of the Recoleta have expressed themselves highly pleased with them.

From Gualeguaychu we hear gay doing stook place on Sunday on the occasion of the inauguration of the Colegio Entre Riano for young ladies, founded under the auspices of the Society for the Protection of Education established in that department. After the official ceremony was gone through, the company present, comprising a great number of ladies and gentlemen from the elite of that society, sat down to luncheon, and numerous toasts were drunk preceded by some good extempore speech.

Our esteemed friend Don Julio Nuñez, who is one of the writers of the "Tribuna," has resigned his post as Juez de Paz of the Catedral al Norte, to which he had not long ago been appointed.

"Le retour de Ulysses" is the title of a new operette comique lately brought out at the Alcazar Lyrique, which has obtained a decided success. It is a long series of most absurd anacronisms strung together with a total disregard of all probabilities, but with sufficient wit to make it very amusing. The principal roles are performed by Mlle. Adrienne, Mons. Cheri, and Colombet, and the music is of that light and pleasing school, of which Offenbach has been the most successful disciple. Those who wish to drive dull care away, and have a good hearty laugh, should not fail to go and see this Parisian Odyssey at the Alcazar Lyrique.

The ex-Governor of Corrientes, Don Evaristo Lopez, who had come here to lay his complaints personally before the National Government, has left again Buenos Ayres. The rebel Caceres is still at large, but it is confidently hoped that he will fulfill the promise of submitting of his own accord, to undergo his trial before the national authorities.

The Comision de Hacienda of the Provincial Chambers has reported in favor of a bill proposed by the Provincial Government, granting powers to the Provincial Bank to make a loan of $4,000,000 to the National Government.

The opera of the the Barbiere de Seviglia, that inimitable and ever fresh composition of the immortal Rossini, will be brought out at the Colon on Wednesday next. Mme. Lablache will take the part of Rosina, which she is said to sing to perfection, as we can well believe, accompanied by Antinori, Ruggero, Segarra and Roca.

The "Orden" of Montevideo states, that the Spanish fleet stationed in Rio de Janiero, has pronounced in favor of the revolution.

According to the "Nacion," the Juez de Paz of San Nicolas de los Arroyos, D. Julio M. Jonas, has been suspended from his functions and indicted for abuses committed by him in the discharge of his official duties. The Municipal procurador will temporarily occupy the post thus vacated, until the election of the new Juez de Paz for the coming year.

To-day is the feast of All Saints, and to-morrow that of All souls. The latter festival is held with particular honor in all Spanish countries, and it is customary to make visits to the tombs of departed relatives and friends.

From Montevideo we learn that the paving works that were going on in that city have been stopped, owing to the Junta Economia having run short of funds.

We are happy to learn that the active Justice of Peace at Ensenada, D. Tomas Garcia, has seized a gang of regular horse stealers and put them in irons. They were taken on Thursday with a large number of horses that they could give no account of; some of them very fine animals. The robbers were en route for Zarate, with about 1,200, of which a large portion were stolen: they were supplying some parties interested in the Brazilian commissariat, who pay $500 a head, but we suppose the latter gentlemen were ignorant of the character of the sellers; the horses are now under embargo, and the culprits waiting justice. We cannot too much applaud the exemplary conduct of the Justice of Peace, and we hope the Tribunals will once for all punish the robbers.

We have since learned that at a late hour last night the owner and peons of the horses embargoed in Ensenada have been remitted by the Justice of Peace of Ensenada to the carcel in this city.

To-day we have to announce, with deep regret, the demise of Mr. Henry Harratt. In the loss of this esteemed gentleman we feel that, not alone as a popular citizen is his departure from amongst us to be deplored, but likewise, in paying this last tribute to his memory, we must not forget he was the representative of one of the oldest and most successful sheep establishments in the country, as likewise the initiator, at a serious loss, of public coaches. He has been ailing for a considerable time, and has succumbed, despite the efforts of the most eminent men of the medical profession in Buenos Ayres. The funeral takes place to-day, from his residence, 190 Calle Defensa.

The General rehearsal for the next Concert of the Philharmonic Society, will this time take place on Tuesday night, at 7,30. p.m. at the Coliseum. Ladies and Gentlemen are requested to attend punctually at said hour. The concert comes off on Saturday, the 7th inst, at eight o'clock precisely.

THE ALLEGED FRAUDS IN COUPONS.

Oct. 30, 1868.

To the Editors of the "Standard."

Gentlemen,

It is with great surprise that I have read in your to-day's edition your remarks on the fraudulent Coupons.

Mr. Luis L. Dominguez, under whose orders I have the honor of being in the Contaduria Federal, entrusted to my care, on the 16th inst., a careful and complete calculation upon the real and total amount of the foreign debt.

On the 21st inst. I delivered to him a most accurate account, showing the amount of the foreign debt, and that which invariably was to be paid yearly up to 1892 of $86,427 55c (gold, of 17 to 1 ounce), the balance for 1893 being $38,704 10c.

Upon such calculations, Mr. Dominguez states that he had no longer any doubt that forged bonds were being paid, as a much larger amount was voted yearly to cover the interest and sinking fund.

He then handed to me some Coupons to be examined and immediately afterwards [on the 23rd at p.m.] 'I was the first to discover and to show plainly where the fraud was.' I laid before him the proof of it, whereupon many other Coupons were checked having been found to be forged.

This was 'the very first notice or intelligence' about forged Coupons. Thus, your statement—which, I understand, you took from the Nacional—besides being highly injurious to the members of the late Government, is by no means correct. Not one of them ever had the slightest idea that false bonds were in the market. Had they known it two years ago, as you and your colleague wrongly state, they would have followed the very same course as the one now in way of execution.

Allow me also to state that you have been wrongly informed, at to the signing in blank the Coupons, to facilitate business. You do not seem to know that these coupons were filled by the members of the special commision, which was not composed, as you erroneously state, of Messrs. Garcia, Pendal & Aranzadi, but of Messrs. St. Hilaire, Nuñez, and others. The Coupons were never signed by the under secretary of the Financial Department, Mr. F. Garcia, nor by the General Accountant, Mr. P. Pendal, nor by the Treasurer, Mr. Aranzadi, without the previous calculation made by the special commission on each foreign claim.

Mr. Norberto de la Riestra, who at the time was the Minister of Finance, I am positively sure, would have never signed in blank the 1st and 34th Coupon of each claim, nor would his under secretary have signed, if Mr. Riestra had not previously delivered the 1st and 34th Coupons, duly signed, after examination of the claim.

We are yet in the dark about the way the forgery was carried on.

Three days have elapsed since official notice was given to holders of Coupons, to lay them before the Government to be checked, and, very strange to say, not even one of those submitted for examination, has yet been found to be false. This shows, very plainly, that there must be some people who are not bona fide holders, who have been afraid to present their bonds for inspection, and who, no doubt, are the agents or partners of the forgers.

It seems to me that you are unconsciously pleading in favor of the guilty forgers, or in behalf of their agents and partners. Your mission, as editors of a foreign periodical, would, perhaps, better be to warn people from making any transaction with such bonds, without being previously informed of their genuineness, rather than to lay before the foreign community an injurious and gratuitous proceeding of the late members of the Government, which, I positively assure you, is far from being correct.

I trust, Gentlemen, that you will have no objection in making public this letter, as the truth must be laid before the foreign community as it is.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Your most obdt. servant,
A. M. ALVAREZ ARENALES

BOSTON WOOL MARKET

The wool market rules very firm for all grades of domestic; prices of low and medium fleece have advanced to 5c, and of the extra and double extra grades 3 to 4c, from the lowest point. The demand from consumers continue fair at these advanced rates, and there is some speculative feeling among dealers—especially those whose stocks are broken and reduced—with considerable lots changing hands for investment.

The receipts of wool are now quite moderate, partly owing to the fact that the balance of the clip is held for higher prices, but principally for the reason that the crop of the Western States has already been mostly bought up and shipped to the Eastern markets. Manufacturers have generally withdrawn their agents from the country, and are now supplying themselves wholly from their stocks of regular dealers in their own neighborhood. They are selling their products quite freely and at a fair margin of profit, and hence are more willing to pay the advanced prices of staple.

Indeed, all manufacturers, who have the means, are anticipating their wants to a considerable extent, and will doubtless be the gainers by so doing, since every indication points to higher wool prices before the close of the season. The article has been relatively depressed, and there is now no reason why it should not come up to its natural level. The supply is by no means large, and, with the foreign grown staple practically shut out from the market of the country, it is now going into consumption at a rate which portends a deficiency before another domestic wool crop is available.

The finer grades of wools are now sought for, and, up to the present time, have been offering at relatively low rates. But within the last few days, with considerable competition for choice lots, holders have succeeded in establishing a material advance. The better grades of Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania wools are in the hands of a few strong parties, who do not care to sell exceept at a material advance on current rates. There is every prospect that they will be able to enforce their demands and bring buyers up to their standard; though the latter are as yet reluctant to meet the views of sellers.

Combing wools continue in good demand, with stocks sold close up. Delaine grades are more quite. Super pulled wools are scarce and selling at relatively high prices. California and Texas wools are firm but quiet. Foreign descriptions are not selling to any extent.

ANGORA GOATS AND THEIR FLEECE.

A correspondent, writing from Brownsville, Pa., to the Country Gentleman, says:

Some think the fleece of the Angora goat cannot be manufactured in America. This is a mistake. I have had it made into blankets, which have rendered entire satisfaction, and I am now having it made into coverlets that I think will please the most precise and fastidious. It has proved more durable, warmer, and more desirable than woollen blankets. E. P. Cook, of Cook's mills, who has worked it so satisfactorily, now wants to make a piece of cassimire from it, which he says will fully meet the requirements of the most precise. I have thus far mostly confined my fleeces to such practical ware, and such has been the satisfaction that I shall extend further in such ware. I am confident that when enough is produced in America, machinery will be erected, and all will be pleased that these animals have been introduced among us.

—Many are familiar with the history of the Merino wool for a number of years after it was introduced into America. I have been ever willing to answer all questions concerning these beautiful and profitable animals, and hope that this may be a satisfactory answer to many whom I could not answer as fully as I desire. Every farmer could cheaply keep a few of these animals, without concerning himself about the market price of the fleece; for on trial he would find his family has use for many pounds of it, and would seek no other market than a domestic one, and by the time that was supplied, as it was with the Merino, another would be opened for the products of these animals. We often hear reports both for and against these animals, but these are not always reliable; some seem to show the best statement they can, and others the worst, but the reader will remember that any animal may have a different appearance as it is represented by two persons.—Chicago Journal Commerce

NEW MEAT-PRESERVING PROCESS.

A company has been formed in Australia for the purpose of preserving and exporting to those islands the flesh of the eight or nine thousand sheep weekly boiled down for the sake of the tallow in that sheep-breeding country. The process to be adopted is that invented by Dr. James Dewar, of Kirkaldy. It is applicable to fish as well as to every other kind of animal food. There is no mystery respecting the method. It consists in steeping the joint to be preserved in a bath of sulphurous acid, allowing one half hour's steep for every pound of meat When the meat is taken out of the acid, it is dried at a high temperature not lower than 80, nor higher than 140. The period of desiccation varies from three to ten days, according to the size of the article to be preserved. Meat thus treated, it is said, will remain sound and wholesome for any length of time and in any climate. A quantity of various kinds of animal food, mutton, beef, sole, haddock, beef biscuit, beef and mutton meal, &c.—was placed in the hands of Commissariat during the Abyssinian Expedition. These articles were exposed to the test of transport in the holds of steamers, carriage across the Isthmus, transit to Massowah, and of the tedious and trying route to Magdala. Yet the fish, flesh, &c., were all found perfectly sound, and by many when cooked were pronounced to be excellent, although a few thought them to be somewhat inspired. The great point, however, of preserving meat for any length of time, by a very simple process, seems to be attained.

We have had numbers of plans proposed for the preservation of meat from the River Plate, Peru, Brazil, and other divisions of South America. Meat preserved by the generality of these processes never attained full public favour. It was difficult to render soft by the any amount of boiling; it retained a taste of tar or some other chemical preparation; it was dark coloured and unprepossessing in appearance. We cannot pronounce whether Dr. Dewar's system is or is not likely to produce similar results. When meat food is so excessively dear at home, and the flesh of so many thousand sheep is literally thrown away to rot in Australia, we may express a hope that the new method will be tried on an extensive scale. Sulphurous acid is comparatively cheap, for the same bath will preserve many pieces of meat in succession. Dr. Dewar asserts that any flavour of the acid disappears in the procces of cooking. But before the public can form a determinate opinion on the merits of the invention, the meat, so preserved, must be offered for sale at a very reasonable price in the public markets.

THE SUPPLY AND CONSUPMTION OF BRITISH COAL AND THE COAL OF THE WORLD.

The satistical facts recently laid before the Royal Institution of Great Britain, by Professor Jevons, on the probable exhaustion of the coal mines of that kingdom, are not only interesting in themselves, as exhibits of the past and present coal trade of that country, and what the trade can be made where the necessary advantages are possessed, but also have some interest as indicating the future dependence of England upon this country for a supply of the article.

The total quantity of coal produced by the mines of the United Kingdom in 1866 was 101,630,544 tons, according to official returns; and in 1867, despite the extreme despression of trade, the total advanced to about 104,000,000 tons. Professor Jevons deduces the following facts from these totals, that the British coal trade is the greatest trade in regard to both bulk and weight of commodity, ever carried on; that every pound of this vast quantity may be considered as a pound of the most valuable substance every discovered; that the power and usefulness of the article is felt in every branch of industry; that Great Britain enjoys the aid of this invaluable substance in a peculiar degree; and finally, that that country cannot hope to enjoy the possession very much longer. We are told, as an aid to the measurement of so huge a bulk, that 100,000,000 tons of coal is thirty times as large as the Pyramid of Cheops, and that it would take seven times as many vessels as those that now enter British ports in a year, to carry the coal annually used by that nation. The railway reports for 1865 show that the different roads transported 36,800,000 tons of general merchandise (excluding live stock), and 18,300,000 tons of minerals; while of coke and coal they carried 59,500,000 tons, or 4,400,000 tons more than all the rest of their transportation taken together. Good coal is said to contain latent force enough to raise its own weight 11,422,000 feet, or about 2,100 miles against the force of gravity. The English coal product of 1866 may be said then to contain force equivalent to that which 530,000,000 horses or 2,650,000,000 men would be capable of putting forth, working eight hours a day and three hundred days in the year. It is believed that the British isles contain coal to a depth of 4,000 feet in a workable condition, in an area containing 83,544,000,000 tons; the area being 5,400 square miles.

With an average annual consumption of 100,000,000 tons this deposit would last eight hundred and thirty-five years. But there are facts for the British mind to seriously consider, and these are, first, whether coal actually abounds to the depth of Mr. Hall's estimate throughout the area given; second, that there was an increase of consumption, reaching 36,000,000 tons, in twelve years, between 1854 and 1866 and third, that causes of increase still exist, and that they even multiply. All experience tends to the conclusion that the increase of consumption takes place in a geometrical series by multiplication. Take the statistics for over two hundred years past, and they prove this; the total quantity imported into London alone in 1650 was 216,000 tons; 1700, 428,100 tons; 1750, 688,700 tons; 1800, 1,099,000 tons; 1850, 3,638,883 tons; 1863, 5,119,887 tons. The inference drawn from the figures given is, that in a few years the yearly consumption will reach 200,000,000 tons; and that if the annual increase of demand went on for 110 years in the same ratio as for the past twelve years, British coal fields would be entirely exhausted.

The annual production of the various coal countries of the world, taken from the latest reports to be obtained, and presented in the following table, will give a comprehensive view of the extent of the trade, and the amount done by each country.

	Tons.
Great Britain	104,000,000
United States	25,800,000
Prussia and the Zollverein	20,610,000
France	10,710,000
Belgium	9,935,000
Austria	4,500,000
British North America	1,500,000
Russia	1,500,000
Spain	300,000
New South Wales	250,000
Ireland	123,500
Total	179,228,500

The entire quantity of this valuable agent raised ufrom beneath the soil at present is about 180,000,000 tons, of which Great Britain furnishes considerably more than one-half, and this country less than one-seventh. But the very fact that the former country ranks first on the list of producers, and with such a total, gives cause for serious consideration there, more especially when this list is examined in connection with the estimated coal land area of the different localities mentioned in it. Such an examination reveals at once the magnificent coal resources of the United States, and her certain, splendid destiny in this single direction. The Teutonic race now enjoys most three-fourths of the coal produced thoughout the world, and the indications are that during the next century a monopoly of the article will pass into the hands of the United States alone. The incalculable and invaluable advantages that such a monopoly would give will be obvious to all who appreciate the true power of this great civilizing agent of force.

The precise amount of coal inbedded in the sod of any given country cannot, of course, be determined, but sufficient data have been reached from time to time to justify the following estimates of different national coal areas:

	Sq. Miles.
United States	196,656
British North America	7,530
Great Britan	5,400
France	984
Prussia	960
Belgium	510
Bohemia	400
Westpholia	380
Spain	200
Russia	100
Saxony	30
Total	213,144

The totals of Great Britain and all the other nations sink into positive insignificance when contrasted with the total of this country. If we assume the capacity of our cold fields to be equal to those of Great Britain, the area given represents our possession 3,949,356,000,000 tons.

The fact that coal is everywhere steadily taking the place of wind, horse, and hand-power, is becoming daily more felt, and the only protection that can offer to Great Britain in the prospect of her coal exhaustion would be the discovery of some agent capable of replacing that article in the uses required.

But even here it would seem as though she would be defeated, for of all the known sources to which science can turn for a substitute electricity is the only good and available one; yet the fallacy of any theory pointing to the substitution of this agent becomes apparent when it is known that the coal-driven machine moving the magneto-electric machine is at this moment the cheapest source of electricity. It is absurd, then, to suppose that it can ever be employed to replace coal. Assuming the exhaustation of British coal, what becomes of British commerce abroad and British industry at home? It is not difficult to see that in such an event, Great Britain would depend upon America for her coal supply. Increased cost of the article would enhance expense of manufacture, and take from her one of the most valuable advantages she has possessed in competing with us for control of the markets of the world—to wit, cheapness of production, and ability to undersell all other rivals in trade. The prospect of British engines driven by American coal is something to startle the English mind. But we place no great importance upon the probability of our securing control of all the world's markets a century or two hence because of the exhaustation of English coalfields, for we expect to dispossess Great Britain of that control, for our own benefit, very much sooner, by means that are already operating to that end, and that are certainly more to be depended upon for the attainment of the result.—New York Herald.

ON 'CHANGE.

Oct. 31st 1868.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
National Bonds	45⅞

National Bonds still continue weak, and the market closed with a decided downward tendency. The cash sales to-day only amounted to 119,000, when it is remembered that all transactions for the month had to be concluded to-day, the sales seem extremely light—in fact the bulk of the business for the end of the month appears to have been arranged previously. There is no animation whatever in the market, one or two of the principal brokers try to bear the market on time offering to sell heavily for the end of the year, but there are no buyers, even at present prices.

For the 31st Dec. 60,000 sold at 45⅞.

For Nov. 30th, 20,000 sold at 45⅞.

For Nov. 2nd, 15,000 sold at 45⅞.

There is nothing further known about the fraudulent coupons, it is now very generally stated that the total amount of the fraud is about 25,000 pats. which has to be paid for 20 years, which makes the total defalcation 500,000 pats. taken at their present value in the market represents about $f.130,000 pats—the nett amount of the swindle.

In exchange nothing done yet, no rare as yet fixed.

In the north wool market there were numerous sales, in fact all the wool in the Plaza Once was sold to-day.

2 carts good wool from Mr. N. O'Donnell's estancia, Capailla del Señor. 54

6 carts do Dorrego, 48.

In the South Plaza to-day there was less animation than in the Once, only two or three sales. Mr. Donovan reports the sale of a very fine lot belonging to Mr. John Bulger, from Mr. E. Musgrave's estancia, Las Flores, at $63. This wool was sold last year at $48 and $55, and it was sold with the bellies.

There is no great demand for money, and discount rates are quoted at nine per cent. per annum.

The Newton's news caused a great impression on 'Change. It was said on the Bolsa that Admiral Mendez Nunez has declared in favor of the revolutionary party in Spain.

Our special reporter at the South Plaza gives the following weekly review:

Very few arrivals of new wool as yet.

The best arrived yesterday obtained $63.

Other classes sold at 50, 51, 53, 55, 57, 58.

Dry Hides—Down: sold at 105, 110, 118, 120, and 130; best matadero, 130.

Sheepskins—No arrivals of good class. Prices fluctuating from 70, 74, 80, up to 90, according to class and condition.

INTERESTING TO ALL.

This Season of the year is most trying to the constitution of all foreigners, more particularly those who may have a tendency to consumption.

One day is warm and dry, the next cold and damp, and but very few there are in this city today without a cold or cough, many with both.

The best remedy for these maladies is

PROFESSOR PENEDO'S SYRUP.

It is never-failing in its effects.

One Bottle is sufficient to test its efficacy.

All who have tested it are willing to vouch to its being a Genuine Article.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Cangallo--103.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P.P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

SARATOGA SPRING "A" WATER

THE SARATOGA "A" SPRING WATER is probably the most effective Mineral Water found on either Continent. It will be observed that it has Ten per Cent. greater Mineral properties than the celebrated Congress Spring, four times that of Baden Baden of Austria, five times that of Aix la Chapelle in Prussia, twice that of Vichy in France, nearly three times greater than the renowned Seltzer of Germany, and equally over the Spas of Bath, England, and Kissengen in Bavaria.

ANALYSIS OF THE SARATOGA "A" SPRING WATER, BY JULIUS G. POHLE' M.D., SURVIVING PARTNER OF JAMES R. CHILTON & POHLE.

Chlorido of Sodium	666.300	Sulphate of Potassa	.370
Chloride of Potassium	.357	Silicic Acid	1.460
Chloride of Calcium and Magnesia	traces.	Alumina	.380
Bi-carbonate of Soda	6.752
Bi-carbonate of Limo	56.852	Per Gallon, Grains	656 911/1000
Bi-carbonate of Magnesia	20.480
Bi-carbonate of Iron	1.724	Free Carbonic Acid Gas	212 Cubic Inches
Sulphate of Limo	.448	Atmospheric Air	4 " "
Sulphate of Magnesia	.288
Sulphate of Soda	2.500	Per Gallon	.216

The value of Mineral Waters has been prized and acknowledged by Medical Men since the earliest civilisation. A celebrated authority says:—"The virtues of Mineral Waters have been best shown in the treatment of obscure and chronic diseases. In many instances persons have been restored to health, or greatly relieved by, Mineral Waters, where other remedies have failed. The reason, no doubt, is that such Waters must contain compounds not yet known to Chemistry or Pharmacy."

USES.

The reputation of this Water is based upon its effects in Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, and Spleen, and acts with wonderful benefit in cases of Chronic Dyspepsia, Constipation, Gravel, Gout, Scrofula, Cutaneous Affections, General Lethargy, Soroness, and Prostration of the System.

WEEK DAYS AND FEAST DAYS.

* All Trains, with the exception of Nos. 8 and 10 out, and No. 3 return, stop at Palermo and Rivadavia when there are Passengers for these Stations. Passengers wishing to alight at either of these Stations must inform the Guard at the preceding Station on entering the carriages. Without this notice the Trains do not stop.

On Feast Days and Sundays the Trains, Nos. 8 and 10 out, and No. 3 return, stop at Palermo when required.

Passengers taking Tickets in the Stations for the Tramway pay $3. Failing to take such they are charged $2 extra above the ordinary price, making a total of $5.

Children under three years of age travel free; above three, and under ten, they pay half-fares.

Dogs are charged half second-class passenger fare, for which a Ticket must be taken, and are carried only when secured by a chain and collar, and placed in charge of the

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Cangallo--103.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes alerady mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P.P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

SARATOGA "A" SPRING WATER

THE SARATOGA "A" SPRING WATER is probably the most effective Mineral Water found on either Continent. It will be observed that it has Ten per Cent. greater Mineral properties than the celebrated Congress Spring, four times that of Baden Baden of Austria, five times that of Aix la Chapelle in Prussia, twice that of Vichy in France, nearly three times greater than the renowned Seltzer of Germany, and equally over the Spas of Bath, England, and Kissengen in Bavaria.

ANALYSIS OF THE SARATOGA "A" SPRING WATER, BY JULIUS G. POHLE' M.D., SURVIVING PARTNER OF JAMES R. CHILTON & POHLE.

Chlorido of Sodium	565.300	Sulphate of Potassa	.370
Chlorido of Potassium	.367	Silicic Acid	1.460
Chlorido of Calcium and Magnesia	traces.	Alumina	.380
Bi-carbonate of Soda	6.752
Bi-carbonate of Limo	56.852	Per Gallon, Grains	656 911/1000
Bi-carbonate of Magnesia	20.480
Bi-carbonate of Iron	1.724	Free Carbonic Acid Gas	212 Cubic Inches
Sulphate of Limo	.448	Atmospheric Air	4 " "
Sulphate of Magnesia	.288
Sulphate of Soda	2.500	Per Gallon	216

The value of Mineral Waters has been prized and acknowledged by Medical Men since the earliest civilisation. A celebrated authority says:—"The virtues of Mineral Waters have been best shown in the treatment of obscure and chronic diseases. In many instances persons have been restored to health, or greatly relieved by, Mineral Waters, where other remedies have failed. The reason, no doubt, is that such Waters must contain compounds not yet known to Chemistry or Pharmacy."

USES.

The reputation of this Water is based upon its effects in Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, and Spleen, and acts with wonderful benefit in cases of Chronic Dyspepsia, Constipation, Gravel, Gout, Scrofula, Cutaneous Affections, General Lethargy, Soreness, and Prostration of the System.
